length veil misted from a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a beautiful bouquet of sweetheart roses.

Grace Christensen, cousin of the bride, wearing a floor length pink net gown, gloves, coronet of pink flowers and a corsage of yellow daffodils was bridesmaid.

The groom was supported by Golden Layton. The Club rooms were gayly decorated with tiny hearts and cupid.

The candle-lit mantle was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by miniature cupid and hearts.

The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bullock and the gifts were placed on dainty white and red trimmed tables by Mrs. Zelma Strong and Mrs. Zelpha Garrett.

Bishop Golden Snow was Master of ceremonies to an entertaining program consisting of Community singing led by H.C. Poulsen, reading by Berna Cook; vocal solo by Roy Sheridan; dance by the little Misses Sylvia Sheridan and Norma Ruth Cook. Remarks by A. E. Hancock were followed by a vocal solo rendered by Merle Judd. Mr. Myron Layton concluded the program with several delightful accordion selections.

Mr. Merle Bunnage proposed the bridal toast, to which the groom responded.

TAKES OATH

—Central Press Canadian
Luis-Munoz Marin, former Greenwich Village, New York writer and first elected governor in the 450-year history of this ancient island of Puerto Rico, takes oath of office at San Juan. Previous governors of this ancient land have been appointed up to 50 years ago by Spain, in the past half century by the United States. More than 200,000 people witnessed the inaugural parade and ceremonies, believed by many to mark the turning point in the turbulent history of the island.
